

Please do NOT weaken Wisconsin's No-Call list. I signed onto the no-call list because I do not wish to be bothered by telemarketers at all. There is no reason banks should be given eighteen extra months to contact people. If I wish to have contact with any business, I will call them. They have no right to invade the privacy of my home.